

Eight Bells for Mental Health

Code of Conduct

Eight Bells for Mental Health aims to maintain a welcoming and enjoyable environment where all who are part of the organisation feel safe and secure. In order to do this, we expect you to:-

- Treat all people using Eight Bells for Mental Health with equal respect
- Avoid using any aggressive, threatening or inappropriate behaviour or language
- Avoid using discriminatory joke telling, name calling or other remarks on the grounds of race, religion, gender, sexuality, disability or age
- Never bring or use any recreational drugs onto the premises, or at an outside activity, used by Eight Bells for Mental Health
- Avoid bringing in prescription drugs onto the premises. If you have to take prescription medicine while at Eight Bells for Mental Health, only bring the minimum required and keep in a discreet container
- Never bring in or use alcohol on any premises used by Eight Bells for Mental Health
- Do not use Eight Bells for Mental Health when under the influence of drugs or when the worse for wear from alcohol
- Respect people's property and premises

I have read and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct. I understand that if any of the conditions are broken I will be subjected to the Penalties Procedure.

Print Name.....

Member's Signature.....

Date.....